

Company Profile

RD Services Limited is the aggregator of a newly modified cloud based telemedicine platform “Pulse Healthcare Services” (that is revolutionizing healthcare. This software allows providers to seamlessly offer patients access to virtual wellness. It integrates effortlessly into clinical workflows of life science professionals to facilitate remote free-flow of communication between health care practitioners and patients.

Organogram of Pulse Healthcare Service Ltd.

Pulse platform is available online for web browsers, iOS and Android. Pulse brings healthcare online. PlusOne platform offers virtual wellness clinic software, which was designed to help private practice dietitians, physicians, and other healthcare providers to offer higher quality service to patients by offering HIPAA Compliant (proposed) video calls, real-time lifestyle monitoring through platform compatible wearable devices. The platform's unique optimization and implementation allow providers to upgrade their practices, and help patients to live a healthier lifestyle.